

St Mary and St Giles Church of England School - Home Learning

What inventions are the Ancient Greeks most famous for? Write about two of them and try to use diagrams to illustrate them.

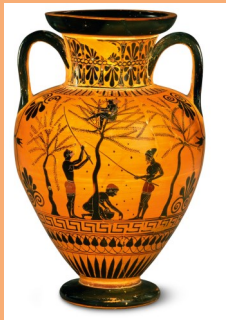

Historians use different sources of evidence to build a picture of life in the past. Write a definition of the following three terms: evidence, primary source, secondary source. Write a list of the different primary and secondary sources that historians can use to learn about the past. .

Find a recipe for a traditional Greek dish and write it out. You can try to make it with an adult if you wish. Take some photographs of what you have made.

Find some examples of Ancient Greek pottery designs and draw one of them. Pay attention to the details.

Year 5 - Groundbreaking Greeks- Autumn 2

Choose one of these challenges to complete this half term. You will need to submit your work during the week beginning Monday 18th December 2023

You are also expected to complete regular reading, tables and spellings practice.

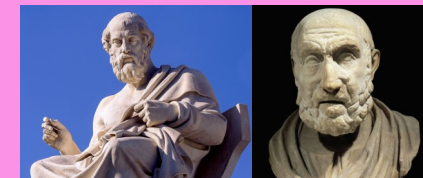

Read a book containing Greek myths. Choose your favourite myth and retell the story to a family member. Afterwards, illustrate your favourite scene from the story. Write a description beneath your picture to explain what is happening.

Design and construct your own classical style Greek architecture. Try to incorporate some of the key features you learnt about in DT.

Athens and Sparta were the most powerful city states in ancient Greece during the Classical period. Compare these two city states by finding out what life was like for the people who lived there, using information books or the internet. Create a table to record your findings and make comparisons. Possible table headings include, location, social classes, government, values and daily life

The achievements of the ancient Greeks influenced the wider world in many fields, such as medicine, education, democracy and philosophy. Find out about the achievements of a famous ancient Greek person who interests you, such as Plato, Socrates, Hippocrates or Alexander the Great. Record your findings in a few short paragraphs