

St Mary and St Giles Church of England School - Home Learning

Find out about the size and structure of a human heart and compare it to the size, structure and number of hearts in at least 3 animals—worms have 5! Present your work in a creative way.

Use a range of sources to find out about the following important events, which involved Britain during the Second World War: Battle of Britain, the Blitz and D-Day. Present your findings in an interesting way.

Find out about the different pulse points on the human body, including the side of your neck (carotid), wrist (radial), top of thigh (femoral) and elbow crease (brachial). Test the different pulse points—which one has the strongest pulse? Present your findings in an interesting way.

Find out about what an air shelter was. What was it made from? Where were they found? Why were they used? What were they like inside? Would you have liked to be inside one? Why / why not? Can you make a model of one or find another creative way to present your learning?

Year 6 Britain At War and The Circulatory System – Spring 2

Choose one of these challenges to complete this half term. You will need to submit your work during the week beginning 25th March 2024. You are also expected to complete regular reading, tables and Spelling Shed practice.

Research the different jobs during WWII and design a poster persuading people to become:

become:

- A soldier
- A member of the land army
- A billeting officer
- A nurse
- A factory worker
- A member of the home guard

Measure your family's resting heart rates before putting them through their paces. Ask them to hop, skip, jump and run, measuring their heart rates after each activity, Create a table with everyone's results before looking for patterns in the data. Who has the slowest heart rate? Which exercise caused the biggest heart rate? Present your findings in a creative way.

What was life like for children during World War 2? Find out what school life was like for children and where children were evacuated from and to in Britain. Can you find a creative way to show your work.

Be kind to your heart! Research information and plan ideas for a weekly menu of food that your heart would love. Spinach, porridge, blueberries, salmon and soy protein are all heart-healthy. Present your work in a creative

